Please volunteer to RO.
Contact Jeff Hennard.

Potential Stage Designers:

Jim Kosicki would also like to hear your stage design ideas.

Paperwork:

A note from your humble statistician: Please fill out your registration and score sheets completely before the match. I can't make any changes to registration after the match and the scores are recorded and handed in. It's no fun to shoot your Glock 17 in Open.

2006 Easter Lakes Sectionals:

We'll know early in the year if we'll host the Eastern Lakes Sectionals in 2006.

The New Look of WNYPPPL:

Please visit our experimental web site:
<http://sports.groups.yahoo.com/group/WNYPPPL/> . You'll need to join the site to see many of the details so please do and offer your input, post some pictures and/or some of your favorite USPSA or IPSC links. Let us know how we can help WNYPPPL help you.

Please bring a new shooter to a practice or a match. We have some of the finest Practical Shooting talent around our club and matches throughout the year. Also some of the nicest folks you'll meet anywhere. Don't forget we practice Thursdays at TSC from 4:00 to 7:00 PM.
Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays and a very Happy New Year to all.
DVC and shoot safely.

This will be my last edition of the A Zone. I've been sending the A Zone out since February of '91, almost 15 years. (I volunteered to do the A Zone as a ploy to get Mikey Braun to allow me to always shoot in the 9:00 squad.)

My progress in the sport ended about 20 years ago, probably while the club was still the Western New York Combat Pistol League, and I've decided to retire while I still know which way the bullets are supposed to come out of the barrel.

Although I won't miss the folding, labeling, and licking stamps for the A Zone, I will miss the comradeship a great bunch of shooters brought to me, and the sport. (Don't any of you pinko types read too much into that comrade stuff.)

Thank you lads.

DVC,
Dave "A Zone" Rogers
