The next time someone suggests a classifier match, somebody remind me about how much I hate them. It really doesn't matter how bad I shot since I won the Super Bowl pool. Yes, more money to spend on the important things in life...you know, guns. Congrats to Dave Pribek, the other club member who won the half time score.

Thanks to our new directors, Mike Harding for taking over all the club finances along with the sign-up table, and Jim Rusert for doing the stats.

This months winners are Dennis Williams (Production), Mike Auger (Lim-10), Neil Mooney squeaked out the win in Open and prepare yourselves for this, Andy (I've got to be a "B") Jansen was our Limited class match winner. Great shooting by everyone that came out.

ELS Meeting:

The ELS meeting was held last month at Geneva. It's still up in the air over who's hosting the sectional match. As of right now, Cortland is next in line. If Cortland passes, it's ours. My wheels are already turning. The other point of interest is the availability of National slots. John Guida, Mike Auger and Steve Delottinville qualified for the slots through our club. I'm not even sure if we're getting three. That said, if you plan on shooting the match and need slots, contact our SC Ron Speicher. I'm sure Ron will do what he can to accommodate your needs.

WNYPPL Skeet Team:

WNYPPL has recruited some new shooters to participate in TSC's winter skeet league. The team is comprised of Dave Pribek, Derek Zmozynski, John Manzell, Jeff Hennard, Bob Pugliese and myself. We're trying hard but still haven't found our stride. Sometime soon, we're going to find something to do that we don't suck at.

Feel free to bring your shotguns along to the pistol matches and give the other shooting sports a try. Trap, Skeet and Sporting clays are available to anyone who wants to shoot.

February Slots:

If you need a slot for next month, drop me an e-mail, or call: 716-675-4301.

Jim.
